BFC's 70th Anniversary Weekend

Nevele Grande Hotel - June 11-13, 2004

"Cousins Forever"

Welcome

Growing up in Brooklyn in the 1950's, you would always hear my mother, father, aunts and uncles talk about the BFC . . . what was the next event? Was it the theater, a dance, a party, a reception? Or, was it just the next monthly meeting – I was at plenty of those! Maybe it was the annual picnic in the park. . . (my personal favorite)!

We had a close family. My grandmother, Jeanette, was one of 10 children of Sara and Sam Weber. I remember her sisters, Great Aunt Lottie ("should live and be well"); Great Aunt Ceil (I still have the slippers she knit for us all); Great Aunt Edith (I loved going to her pharmacy on 4th Ave., and picking out a chocolate bar); Great Aunt Shirley ("shut-up and deal"); and Great Aunt Cynthia ("call me Aunt Cyn"). Of all her brothers, I remember Great Uncle Eddie the most, (not only did we live three blocks away, but since I was the first grandchild born in my generation, he would always say to me, "You made me Great"). I also have fond memories of my Great Uncles Jack, Al and Murray.

It was their children however, my mother and father's generation that I remember always buzzing about the BFC. We were so close with some of them that even though they were actually my "second cousins", they were absolutely "Aunt & Uncle" to me – Flo & Bert Swayman topped that list and Rozzie & Bill Parker were right there with them.

Sure, I knew my cousins – we all lived in Brooklyn! But alas, no more. Today, our son, Howard, his wife Kimberly and our grandson, Jacob, live in Tampa. Tampa! That's more than walking down Ocean Parkway to Kings Highway! My brother, Randy, and his family live in Coral Springs. Even my mother, is down there in Sunrise. (What phase? Phase 4, thank you!). So here I am in NJ (exit 127) with our daughter, Jennifer, (exit 120) – even she lives about an hour away. Today, getting to a BFC Meeting on a "bad traffic" day on the Belt takes us about 2 ½ hours each way!

That's why this weekend and the BFC is so important. What a wonderful occasion to come and join together with family. I sincerely hope that you take advantage of everything the weekend has to offer; meet a new cousin or spend time with folks you haven't seen in a while. It's also a good time to rejuvenate your interest in the BFC, and maybe even think about getting involved, so it can thrive for future generations.

It has been my pleasure to chair this weekend and to prepare this Anniversary Journal for the family. There are certainly some cousins that I would be remiss if I did not thank: Sharon & Tom Ranonis, Arlene & Stanley Rothman, Murray and Joyce Tulis, Arlene & Harvey Weber, Richard and Barbara Bernstein, Jerry Bernstein, and our "Sunshine Lady", Maddie Silver.

A special thank you goes to the following three cousins: to Martin Tulis for providing us with the BFC 70th Anniversary t-shirts; to Dr. Richard Bernstein for his presentation of "Old Time Films" on Saturday; and to Elaine Partnow for the presentation of her one-women show, "The Quotable Woman" – don't miss it on Sunday!

Last, but certainly not least, a tremendous thank you goes to "Mr. Tattlerman" himself, Saul Cohen, who researched and typed the entire BFC Family Tree, which appears in this Anniversary Journal. When you run in to him this weekend, why not let him know how much you appreciate this Herculean task.

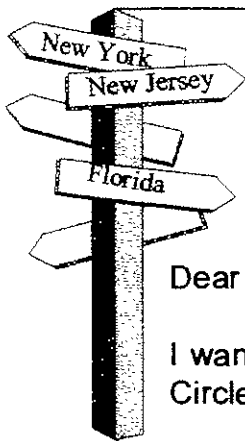

OOPS! And of course, a big thank you to my wife, Helene, for too many reasons to list here.

Thank you, one and all. And now ENJOY, ENJOY !!!

Most sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Alan M. Fine", with a horizontal line underneath it.

Alan M. Fine
Weber Branch
Chairman, 70th Anniversary Weekend

From Our President

Dear Cousins,

I want to welcome all of you to the 70th Anniversary of the Bernstein Family Circle.

As I thought about our history and our future, I wanted to express something meaningful which would give each of us something to ponder after the festivities are over and have become but a wonderful memory.

Over the past few years, we have seen how organizations both big and small grow into fruition and quickly fade from sight. One need only look at the rise and fall of the dot coms to understand. The BFC is an organization that has continued from one century into the next. We have experienced many changes over the last seventy years, and are still an active group. We have spread out across most of this country, become more sophisticated and worldly, yet our family circle thrives. The main reason for our longevity is that we really are one family.

The BFC was founded to preserve our family ties, and we have certainly done an incredible job. We should be proud to be a member of such an amazing group; it is a part of our unique heritage. We are truly special. As our family grows, it is crucial that our children and grandchildren become familiar with our wonderful traditions, and that they get a chance to know all their cousins. We want them to have an opportunity to celebrate our 140th anniversary!

I want to thank our past presidents and officers who have given up so much of their time over the years, and to all of the cousins who came to meetings and supported our events. We owe you our gratitude for your dedication and commitment to making our family circle grow.

In addition, I would like to thank all those involved in making the 70th Anniversary Weekend so successful. Alan Fine, committee chairman, deserves special recognition for all the hard work he's done both in coordinating the weekend, and for the beautiful flyers he created. It's not easy getting so many Bernsteins in one place at one time. Alan has done an outstanding job. In addition, many thanks to Martin Tulis for donating the beautiful BFC Anniversary t-shirts. Although he could not attend, he is with us in spirit.

Lastly, thanks to my dad, Saul Cohen, for all his efforts in updating our family tree, as well as for the work involved in writing and publishing the Tattler.

Have a wonderful time this weekend, and take a few moments to remember that we are...

Cousins Forever,

(Sung to the tune of Shipmates Forever)

*Cousins forever
Stand by the B.F.C.
Let us work together
Striving, thriving for the B. F. C.
Unity and harmony
Let that be our creed
Although we have stormy meetings
At the end there's always greetings
Long live the B.F.C.*

The Bernstein Family Circle Tree

Genealogy researched, input, and updated by Saul Cohen

March 2004

The name of Bernstein was originally Vinarsky. The name Bernstein means Amberstone.

The family originated from a town called Naron, Lithuania. It has been changed to Vorony.

The town of Naron was in Vilna Guberniya, about two (2) railroad stops on the SW Railroad.

BFC

Bernstein Family Circle

1934 - 2004

Congratulations to the BFC on their 70th Anniversary.

*May they continue to expand and prosper in the years to come.
We have something special in the BFC that very few families have and we hope that future generations will carry on our tradition of love and closeness.*

ANNUITY OWNERS

HOW LONG HAS IT BEEN SINCE YOU HAVE HAD A COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW OF YOUR ANNUITY?

Annuities have changed dramatically in the last few years and many annuity owners are not aware of these changes. Are you holding an outdated annuity? Do you have a nursing home waiver? Do you have a stepped-up death benefit? Do you have penalty-free cumulative withdrawals? Is your performance not meeting your expectations? Please call or write us for a complimentary consultation.

Living History Portrayals
of Notable Jewish Women

Perfect for meetings, celebrations, conferences

Captivating and realistic dramatic presentations of women like Bella Abzug, Golda Meir, Rosalyn Yalow and Sophie Tucker. Pithy and provocative lines from Gertrude Stein, Gloria Steinem, songs of such stellar lyricists as Betty Comden, Carole King, and more. From the Bible to today's women, this program breathes life into the enormous contributions women have made to humanity. Costumes and props add color and excitement to this engaging program.

Entertainment, education, inspiration—rolled into one.
